HISTORY

The Gulf Coast Athletic Conference developed out of a series of meetings held over a period of almost four years. A number of private four-year schools in the Gulf Coast region with similar educational standards, enrollments, budgets, and athletic philosophies mutually felt the need for a conference.

In April and May, 1981, a constitution was developed, officers were elected and the decision was made to proceed with conference competition during the 1981-82 school year. Charter officers were Anthony M. Rachal, Jr., Xavier University, president; John Burton, Spring Hill College, vice-president; Mark Windham, Belhaven College, secretary-treasurer; and Thomas Howell, Louisiana College, commissioner. Charter members were Belhaven College of Jackson, Mississippi; Dillard University and Xavier University of New Orleans, Louisiana; Louisiana College of Pineville, Louisiana; Spring Hill College of Mobile, Alabama; Tougaloo College of Tougaloo, Mississippi; and William Carey University of Hattiesburg, Mississippi.

In August, 1981, the GCAC received recognition as an NAIA Affiliated Conference. The University of Mobile, Alabama was admitted in October, 1985, Southern University in New Orleans was granted admission in May, 1986, Loyola University was admitted in April, 1995, and Talladega College was admitted in April, 1999 and Louisiana State University-Shreveport became a member in April, 2000. In May 2000, Louisiana College and Belhaven College withdrew. In April, 2002, Belhaven College was re-admitted. In August, 2002, Talladega College withdrew. In 2005, Hurricane Katrina forced Dillard University and Xavier University to cancel all athletic competition for 2005-2006 and Loyola University and Southern University in New Orleans were able only to compete partially. All schools returned to competition in 2006-2007, although in most cases with a reduced number of sports.

In 2010, Belhaven College, Louisiana State University-Shreveport, Loyola University, University of Mobile, Spring Hill College, and William Carey University left the conference. Edward Waters College and Fisk University joined in 2010. Philander Smith College joined and Talladega College rejoined in 2011.
